In sad and loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Carrie Hoskins, who passed away two years ago today, May 23, 1917.

What is home without you, Mother? What are all the joys to me? Since your loving smiles no longer greet the coming of our feet, The days are long, the nights are dreary

OUR TRAVELING REPRESENTATIVE.

Mrs. Rosetta B. Green, traveling representative for the Kansas City Sun writes: My first stop was at Pleasant Hill, Mo., and it was here that my late husband, the Rev. Henry Green was pastor of the A. M. E. church for two years. The work we wrought in his name is still in evidence as seen in the Christian activity of the young people, who are the hope and support of the Church, only a few of the older ones being left. Space will not permit my feeling as I returned to this Church and people after ten years' absence. In our handclasp we smiled first and then the tears rolled down our cheeks unbidden which spoke eloquently of the joys and sorrows through which we had passed. Sunday the service was very good at both churches, Methodist and Baptist and though not well attended both enjoyed spiritual feasts. At three P. M. I attended the A. M. E. Sunday school and found a very interesting School of young people and children. I addressed them and organized a Junior Missionary Society. The pastor, Rev. W. L. Lillard is a splendid preacher and the Church will succeed under his leadership. Prof. J. S. Moten is slowly recovering from a serious illness. Mrs. Wm. Bryant and Mr. A. Scott and Mr. Geo. Wood are on the sick list. Mrs. Rosa Gibson is visiting in Kansas City. Our people in Pleasant Hill and Lee's Summit, Mo., are thrifty, sturdy most of them owning their own homes with a large garden plot, chickens, pigs and a cow. Mrs. Harriet Clark former resident of Pleasant Hill now of Kansas City, Kansas, is visiting her old home and is the house guest of Mrs. Geo. Wood, where also the representative of the Sun is house guest. The latter was dinner guest of Mrs. M. Lillard and Mrs. L. E. Wright, Mrs. L. A. Scott and Mrs. Angelina Gudegg. In Lee's Summit the guest of Mrs. Sterling Moss to all whom she feels very grateful. Prof. J. S. Moten is principal of the school here and his wife, Mrs. Moten is his very efficient assistant who held everything in fine shape during the principal's illness and is closing the school with a grand exhibition which reflects much credit.

We are pleased to say that we were able to collect up all the delinquent subscriptions and add the following as new readers of the Sun: Mrs. W. H. Snead, Miss Blanche Bryant, Mrs. Harriett Clark, Mrs. Cornelia Bryant, Mr. L. W. Wright, Rev. Y. L. Lillard, Mr. Leon Morris, K. Andrew Wood, Mrs. Robert Snead.

At Lee's Summit Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Moss are the pillars in the A. M. E. church, their beautiful home is the home of all ministers visiting Lees Summit. Mesdames R. L. Booker, Anna Cox are caterers and both kept very busy. We also added them as subscribers to the Sun. Mr. Bob Booker owns a beautiful home on a very prominent street.

Our people at Holden, Mo., are good liveries, the greater part of them owning their own homes with fine gardens and chickens. I was guest in this little thriving town of Mrs. Henry Murry and Mrs. F. Ewing; the latter has a son overseas. I was met as cordially here as the other towns above mentioned and although there are but few of our people in this town I added the following to our already healthy list of subscribers: Mrs. Katherine Violette, Forest Berry, Mrs. Hattie Taylor, Mrs. F. J. A. Wilson, Miss Rachel West, Mrs. Lucille Taylor, Mrs. Emma Easley. We will write again from Sedalia.
